While the coronavirus is preventing us from worshiping together in person, we will continue to strengthen and comfort one another with our prayers. God will guide us together through these troubling times.
Grace Church continues to celebrate in the presence of Christ in all circumstances.
We will gather virtually again this Sunday to celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Easter, Rite Two.
You will be notified by email when our videotaped service is posted to You Tube.

LETTER FROM FR. RICK BURHANS 4/29/20

Dear Grace Church Family,

I hope you are all faring well and staying healthy as we journey through the challenges associated with the Covid 19 pandemic. Grace is an amazing family of faith. I have heard from many of you about how your faith is growing despite the sheltering and other issues related to the virus. My prayer for you is that God will continue to watch over and bless you all and safely bring us together again soon as a family of faith.

At this point, we are awaiting the governor’s blessing on our state’s going back to work and our beginning to gather socially also. Churches are to be included in that early on, and for that gift, we give many thanks. For Grace, and all the churches of the Episcopal Diocese of Central Florida, we will continue to worship through our recorded services until Bishop Brewer gives his blessing on reopening and on holding worship services in our sanctuaries. I will get the word out as soon as he gives his blessing to us.

As we prepare to gather once again, we are going to offer our church family a drive thru communion opportunity this Sunday, May 3 between 10:00 and 11:00 am. This will be done by entering and driving through our parking lot from Monroe St. (the street that runs behind the parish hall), then stopping to receive the bread and wine before exiting onto Ridgewood Ave. For everyone’s safety, I will be wearing a mask and gloves while distributing communion. Please note that we will remain in our cars the entire time.

I feel it is important to keep you informed about our finances during this difficult time. First, I want to thank you for continuing to send in your pledges while we are sheltering apart from one another. I cannot emphasize enough how important this is for us. For example, during the month of March, we fell behind about $5,000.00. This was primarily due to a loss of income from cancelled events and the absence of Sunday plate income, not from a shortage of tithe and pledge income.

We do not have our April figures finalized yet, but it looks like it is going to be another month with income that is significantly below expenses. We do not have many options for reducing our overhead, so we are facing some profoundly painful cuts in our efforts to balance our budget. More than ever, your prayers and generosity are crucial for our survival. For so many churches everywhere, this is a serious problem, so please keep us all in your daily prayers. We have applied for Payroll Protection Program monies and are awaiting SBA approval of our application. Please pray that we receive these funds soon. With them we will be able to offset many payroll expenses and have a better ability to balance our budget going forward. Hopefully, we will know if we are approved within a few days.

I am optimistic that we will survive this storm as we have survived so many in the past 130 years. God didn’t bring Grace this far just to abandon us now. He loves this church and all the good we do in Jesus name. I am certain that He has many more blessings for us in the future, so let’s prayerfully do our part to keep moving forward as the church of open arms.

Blessings, Fr. Rick
THE DEACON’S CORNER
Dear Grace Church Family,
CHRIST IS RISEN, ALLELUIA!! Maybe our Alleluias are not as loud or said as often as they were on Easter Sunday, BUT we are still in the Easter Season so keep on saying Alleluia to everybody you know—and don’t know!
This is a time in our lives when we need to say and hear as many joyful Alleluias as we can for both our spiritual and moral support! We need to continue to be the Body of Christ, whether we come together in person to worship in our beautiful church or sing God’s praises in our homes. WE ARE THE EYES, EARS, MOUTHS, HANDS, FEET AND LIMBS OF JESUS CHRIST OUR SAVIOR, regardless of where or how we meet to worship. So please, keep praying for our church and for the whole world and never forget that we are not alone! Jesus is right beside us walking with us through this terrible time and he will not let anything happen to his loved ones. We just have to have faith and not give in to anything or anyone who is against our Lord. Keep praying Psalm 91 and The Lord’s Prayer every day and let us put our trust in God who is our shield and buckler!

This past Monday I made Bill for his breakfast my “famous” Breakfast Casserole using my homemade Bisquick (I gave you the recipe last week). This is one of his favorite meals and I would like to share it with you! See recipe below.

This Sunday is the fourth Sunday of Easter, a day that is also popularly referred to as “Good Shepherd Sunday” because the gospel on the fourth Sunday of Easter is always one of the Good Shepherd passages from the gospel of John.

We have all been enjoying the beauty of our stained-glass Good Shepard window in the Chapel as a backdrop to the weekly services. Here is the history of the window taken from our brochure:

The Good Shepherd Window
The chapel windows, as originally built in 1893 were filled with shaded and clear glass. They were later replaced, front and rear with memorial windows crafted by the Tiffany studios. Louis Comfort Tiffany was perhaps the most prolific and sought-after designer of stained glass at the turn of the 19th to 20th centuries. This Tiffany window above the altar depicts a favorite theme of Christian believers. Christ, the good shepherd, holds a lamb in his arm while others cluster close about his feet and legs. The glass is known as “circus glass”, and the figure changes with the changing light. As you look at this window, note the inclusion of organic matter - twigs and leaves - between the layers of glass. Examine the rich texture of the sheep’s wool and the grosgrain/satin “texture” of Jesus’ robes. If you move near to and look carefully across or up the window, you will observe “layering” of up to seven layers of glass to create the effect Tiffany desired. This window is particularly stunning late afternoon when the sun sets the windows colors ablaze. This window was given by the Meeker family (a local founding family of the community – Dr. Meeker being the local physician) in memory of Mrs. Meeker’s father.
GRACE CHURCH STAFF’S VITAL AND CHANGED RESPONSIBILITIES DURING COVID19 QUARANTINE.

Our church staff members have continued to work during this time, risking their own health and taking on new responsibilities to support the work of Grace Church. We highlighted Joe Marcellino last week. This week we highlight Kim and Kevin as we thank them all for their dedicated service.

Kim Mansfield, Bookkeeper

While the coronavirus has suspended our public church services and all other scheduled activities, the ongoing management of our church finances must continue, and Kim continues to perform this vital function.

As she has done for 15 years, Kim maintains our financial records including processing weekly offerings and other forms of income, payment processing, and bill payment, expense reimbursement, check requests, and payroll processes. She also applies for grants for the Food Pantry and does social media for Grace.

In addition, while we have suspended the use of our volunteer front desk personnel who answer phones, Kim helps in this capacity as well.

Although our office is locked to all outside visitors, many of are bringing your weekly pledges to the office and Kim has gladly been receiving them at the front door!

Kevin Davids, Sexton

Kevin has been constantly busy since the shut-down. He spent the first weeks deep cleaning the inside of all our facilities, ensuring a spotlessly clean and safe environment for us to return to.

He has now turned his attention to large exterior cleaning projects. He is currently spending his time doing much needed shrub and tree trimming and debris removable throughout our campus.

He will then be turning his attention to pressure washing the buildings, which is another necessary maintenance project.
MINISTRIES CONTINUE THEIR WORK DURING THE SHUT-DOWN:

Offering Counters
Our volunteer offering counters continue to come to the office weekly to count and prepare contributions (with lots of social distancing and hand sanitizer). Thanks to Jody Lee, Audrey Rajter, Alan Titkemeier, and John Palmer.

And thank you to all our parishioners who continue to support Grace Church through their pledges.

Altar Guild
Thank you to Grace Church Altar Guild Ministry Leaders, Rosie Shaw and Sue Wright who have been at the church every weekend after the videotaping to collect and launder the altar linens and replenish the Aumbry Candle.

Flower Guild
As you can see when you watch our weekly videotaped services from the chapel, the Flower Guild is still arranging the beautiful floral displays each week. Thanks to all the members of this ministry who are doing this on a rotating basis in the following order:

Joyce Williams (2 weeks ago)
Joan Normington (last week)
Audrey Rajter (this week)
Leslie Wiggins (Mother’s Day)
Ann Zerbach
Lynda Moore
Sharon Winters (Pentecost)
Carolyn Burhans (Trinity Sunday)
Joyce Williams

Prayer Shawl Ministry
Members of the Prayer Shawl Ministry continue to prayerfully knit and crochet Prayer Shawls in their homes and the shawls continue to be blessed by Fr. Rick on the altar during services (you may notice them being blessed while watching the videotaped services). The goal of this ministry is to give a shawl to each of those who are ill, lonely, or in need of comfort. To request a Prayer Shawl for yourself or others, contact Audrey Rajter, 386 788-6801 or audreyrajter@gmail.com
ECW BOARD MEETING, Monday, April 27
Nothing can stop the ECW!
from left Carolyn Wade, Terry Cheremsak, Mary Weathers, Carol Smith, Nancy Brunner.

IMPORTANT ECW UPDATES:
1. All scheduled meetings and craft dates for this spring have been cancelled until the church can be safely reopened.
2. ECW next General Meeting is now scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 8.
3. The Yard Sale will not be held this spring.
   The Yard Sale will now be held in conjunction with the Celebrate Christmas Sale on Saturday, November 14.
4. No clothing, electronics or books will be sold this year. Please continue to hold on to all other gently used items.
5. Until we can safely start up our Craft Group, we hope all our crafters will start working at home on items for Celebrate Christmas Sale.

FACEMASKS FOR GRACE:
Some ECW sewers are making washable, reusable cloth facemasks for our parishioners when we are finally allowed to gather again as a congregation.
It may well be that even after the lifting of the quarantine, wearing facemasks will be the “new normal” for a period. We are preparing!
If you have a sewing machine and would like to help or if you need material or patterns, contact Nancy Fitch at nanvt@yahoo.com or 386 304-1669.
GRACE CHURCH PRAYER MINISTRIES, including the many members of our Prayer Circles, Daughters of the King and Prayer Teams actively, strongly and with great dedication continue their mission of offering all thing to God with prayer. We thank them all as they remain steadfast in their devotion to praying for our individual needs, the Grace Church family and the world.

DRIVE-THRU COMMUNION

This Sunday, May 3, 2020
10AM – 11AM

Please come and join any time between 10AM & 11AM

Enter our Parking Lot from Monroe Street (the street behind the Parish Hall)
Ushers will guide you.
Communion will be brought to your car.
Depart our Parking Lot either by turning right onto Ridgewood OR
by making a left onto Church Street (the street next to the chapel)

THIS IS NOT OUR FIRST PANDEMIC

Last week the Daytona News Journal published an article about the Spanish Flu Pandemic in this area of Florida in 1918 and 1919. It reminds us that our Chapel was built in 1893 and the Tiffany windows installed at the turn of the century. In 1918 Grace Church was a small but prosperous and thriving Mission Church. The Daytona Beach area was sparsely populated at that time and not as widely affected as many other parts of the world. However, “schools were closed, church services suspended, and meetings cancelled”, according to the News Journal article. There is no mention of the 1918 Spanish Flu Pandemic in our church history booklet. You can read this booklet on our website here: https://graceepiscopalportorange.org/15

We hopefully assume from this that all our parishioners remained healthy. We certainly know that the Chapel was reopened, services resumed, and Grace Church went on to grow and thrive.

We continue to pray that this will also be the Grace Church history of the 2020 COVID19 Pandemic.

Rev. Susan’s Breakfast Casserole

1 or 2 cups of cut up cooked ham (left over from Easter-I froze it in zip lock packages) OR one 8oz package cut up ham

1 small green pepper chopped (Optional)

1 small onion chopped

2 large or 3 medium potatoes –washed peeled and sliced thin into round circles. (Or use 2 cups of frozen hash brown potatoes OR 2 cups of frozen tator tots)

2 Tablespoons Butter or Margarine

1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

2 plum tomatoes diced (Or you can use one 15 oz. can of diced tomatoes _DRAINED WELL

½ cup homemade Bisquick ( or you can use the “real thing”)

1 cup milk (I use 2% or you can use regular or ½ & ½)

4 eggs (I use large eggs)

Dash of garlic powder & dash of black pepper

Dried parsley

Paprika

1. Heat oven 375 degrees. Put potatoes in a sauce pot with water and parboil for about 5 minutes (They will not be soft) Grease bottom and sides of iron skillet with 1 tablespoon butter (save rest for Casserole).

2. Put ham, onion, parsley, diced tomatoes and green pepper in skillet and cook until heated through, about 3-4 minutes on medium heat (remember the ham is already cooked). Drain the potatoes (I save the water in a mason jar and put in refrig. for thickening sauces etc.).

3. Mix ham mixture and potatoes together in same skillet –smooth out on bottom of pan. Sprinkle ½ of cheese on top of ham & potato mixture. Dot casserole with rest of butter.

4. Put in a food processor or large bowl eggs, milk and homemade bisquick and blend together until nice and smooth. Pour into skillet on top of ham and potato mixture. Add the rest of the cheese on top of mixture and sprinkle with parsley and paprika. Cover skillet and bake for 45 minutes or until knife comes out clean when inserted into the middle of the casserole.

Makes 6 Servings

Note: You can use bulk sausage or cut up bacon instead of the ham- just cook and brown the meat in skillet before you add the potatoes.

Enjoy! Let me know how you like or dislike this recipe.

Volume XX  May 3-9, 2020  Number 18

Sunday, May 3
Exodus 28:1-4, 30-38 Make sacred clothes for your brother Aaron. When he is wearing them, people will honor him. They will have respect for him. (v.2 NIV)

I attend a large church. The style of dress is very casual. Some people wear shorts or jeans or t-shirts and ball caps. My pastor does not wear a suit or tie for our regular Sunday services.

For some people research reveals that our inner thought life has a profound effect on our outward behavior. The Bible is in agreement with this principle. What we truly think and believe reveals itself in our words, actions, and relationships.

I have a history of clinical depression. This means I also have a long history of negative thinking in general. I am prone to thinking about myself and others and the world around me in negative and damaging ways.

God’s word has set me free from this downward spiral of thinking. I do not have to accept negative thoughts or patterns of thinking that are harmful. As a Christian, I have the mind of Christ. I can choose to think with his mind. What a wonderful freedom!

Psalms 63, 98; 1 John 2:18-29; Mark 6:30-44

Monday, May 4
Colossians 3:18—4:18 Work at everything you do with all your heart. Work as if you were working for the Lord, not for human masters. (v.23)

Who hasn’t had a family member or boss who was hard to get along with? It’s pretty safe to assume there have been certain people we come in contact with that seem impossible to please or get along with. Personally, there have been more than a few challenging people in my life. Often, I would complain about them and the difficulties dealing with them.

Then, when I read this verse for the first time, it really helped to change my perspective. Even though I have to deal with people firsthand, it is ultimately God who has placed them in my life. When I was able to take the person and the personality out of the equation, I was able to look past and even forgive some of their words and actions.

It is when I aim to please and serve God and Him alone that I am able to work whole heartedly. Whether a relationship or job, knowing I ultimately serve Him, makes all the difference.

Exodus 32:1-20; Psalms 41, 52; Matthew 5:1-10

Tuesday, May 5
Exodus 32:21-34 “So I told them, ‘Anyone who has any gold jewelry, take it off.’ They gave me the gold. I threw it into the fire. And out came this calf!” (v.24)

I’ve come up with some pretty pitiful excuses in my life but this one takes it to a whole new level! It is almost impossible for me to imagine how anyone, let alone a man of faith, could actually verbalize this as a realistic reason for what had happened. It is almost comical to me!

In the same breath, after reading and studying this passage, I find great reassurance. I am encouraged that despite my sinful behavior and sometimes ridiculous excuses, God extends His grace. If God could extend grace to Aaron after this, He is most certainly able to do the same for me.
I’m so thankful God chose to allow His word to reveal human behavior realistically. He didn’t just give us stories of perfect people. These examples give me hope that I am not beyond God’s help and grace.

Psalm 45; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10; Matthew 5:11-16

Wednesday, May 6
Psalm 119:49-72 You are good, and what you do is good. (v.68a)

God’s word is important to me for many reasons. One reason is that it corrects my thinking and reorients my thoughts to what is really true. God’s word is truth. My thinking and feelings are real, but they are not always aligned in the truth.

Often, Satan, the deceiver, whispers things like, “God is holding out on you.” Or, “That promise isn’t meant for you.” Or, “See, God isn’t going to come through for you.” Like Eve in the garden of Eden, sometimes I listen to that voice.

But then, God’s word brings me back to truth. God is good. All the time. No matter what. I cannot trust my thoughts or feelings. Instead, I choose to believe His word. God can be trusted.

Psalm 45; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10; Matthew 5:11-16

Thursday, May 7
Matthew 5:21-26 “Suppose you are offering your gift at the altar. And you remember that your brother or sister has something against you. Leave your gift in front of the altar. First go and make peace with them. Then come back and offer your gift.” (vv.23-24)

When taking Communion, it is a time of reflection for me. I pause and ask God to show me if there is any area of sin in my life. I also reflect to see if my conscience is clear in my relationships.

This verse reminds me of my own responsibility to determine if someone has something against me. Not the other way around. I’m not supposed to wait for people to come to me if there is a problem. It is up to me to examine my heart and relationships.

Jesus is reminding us to try and make amends or reconcile if someone has an issue or offense against us. May we all be responsive to take action when the Holy Spirit prompts us. Is there an issue God has brought to your mind? Take care of it today.

Psalm 50; 1 Thessalonians 2:13-20

Friday, May 8
1 Thessalonians 3:1-13 Now may a way be opened up for us to come to you. May our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus do this. (v.11)

I am a planner. I schedule things. I am not a big fan of doing things spontaneously. I like to know what lies ahead and plan accordingly. This is not always helpful in my spiritual life.

As I have grown over the years in my walk with Christ, I’ve learned it is helpful to ask God first if what I intend is in His plan. When I pray, I ask His will to be done and not my own will. Often, I ask God to open and close doors accordingly to His plan. The hard part can be accepting it when the door closes! Yet, I take comfort that He is in control and showing me the path I should or should not take.

My part is to be willing to accept the open or closed door. This is what Paul is telling the people he is writing to in this letter. He is asking God to open or close the door accordingly to His will. Are you willing to go another way if God closes a door?

Matthew 5:38-48 “You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor. Hate your enemy.’ But here is what I tell you. Love your enemies. Pray for those who hurt you.” (vv.43-44)

This is a very hard saying of Jesus. It is completely opposite of what we want to do. Exactly how does one love an enemy? How completely painful it is to pray for those who have hurt us. How is it that Jesus can require this of us? Later in the passage, Jesus also tells us to be perfect. How is that for an unattainable standard?

I have learned through experience that praying for someone who has hurt me has actually changed me—not the other person. I think that is Jesus’ point. He wants us to be changed and to become like him. He wants to give us his power. He wants to do in us what we are not able to do for ourselves.

Jesus is saying we will need him and his righteousness in order to do the things he calls us to do. I thank him for his work in my life to do what I am not able to do in my own power.
