

Please take a few moments for quiet reflection and prayer. Your silence before worship and your warm hospitality afterwards are gracious gifts to others.

The Lesson: Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Psalm 36

- 5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, and your faithfulness to the clouds.
- 6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains, your justice like the great deep; you save both man and beast, O LORD.
- 7 How priceless is your love, O God! your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
- 8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; you give them drink from the river of your delights.
- 9 For with you is the well of life, and in your light we see light.
- 10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, and your favor to those who are true of heart.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

The Gospel: John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Collect

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

We have Sundays available for Altar Flower memorials which is a time- honored tradition at Grace there is a sign up book in the Narthex or call church office.

The Ambry candle is given to the glory of God

DIOCESE COVID GUIDELINES - Facemasks are optional . For those choosing to wear a facemask but not social distance, you may sit anywhere except the left side of the church. The left side is reserved for those who, for whatever reason, wish to continue to wear a facemask and social distance.

TODAY IS THE LAST DAY FOR THE POST OFFICE. Our Post Office will not retain unclaimed cards beyond January 9. Thank you.

GRACEWAY CAFÉ NEEDS HOSTS - We are suspending the resumption of Graceway Café for the duration of the Covid transmission spike. We are still looking for hosts once we can resume our fellowship Coffee Hour between services. There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex if you or your ministry group would like to volunteer to "host" Graceway Café for one Sunday a month for a 3-month period. This is a terrific way to get publicity for your ministry or a good fellowship project for a small group of parishioners.

2022 PLEDGE ENVELOPES ARE NOW AVAILABLE IN THE NARTHEX- if you do not see your name and would like Pledge Envelopes, please add your name to the sign-up sheet in the Narthex.

ATTENTION MINISTRY LEADERS- Please start preparing your 2021 ministry summaries for inclusion in our Annual Meeting Report. The deadline for sending your reports to the office is January 10. Thank you.

GRACE CHURCH 131ST ANNUAL MEETING – SUNDAY, JANUARY 23. There will be one combined service at 9:00 a.m. Parish Breakfast/Brunch and the Annual Meeting will follow in the Parish Hall. Please join us.
